

BCAUSEICAN

OUR COVID-19 RESPONSE

BCAUSEICAN was able to meet the challenge of not holding in person classes due to COVID-19 and conducted a Summer Virtual Coding Camp for the Shaw Community Center in Washington, DC for ages 6-13 and a Summer Virtual Coding Camp for Hillside Works-Scholar Connection located in Greenbelt, MD for ages 14-18.

We also extended our training to multilingual technology workshops for parents of the Judge Sylvania Woods Elementary School in Glenarden, MD this fall to assist students participating in distance learning. Read the full story here.

BCAUSEICAN named Accenture Metro DC Spotlight Charity

Accenture employees voted BCAUSEICAN as Spotlight Charity for FY21. Read the full story here.

Ian Hopewell - Summer Spotlight Student

Please meet 6 year old Ian Hopewell, who was enrolled in the Computer Coding Camp this summer and chosen as one of our Spotlight Students. Please watch the video here.

JOIN OUR CAUSE

BCAUSEICAN needs your support to continue our mission to reach more students and families. We have great goals for 2021 to conduct our classes in 10 elementary schools and your help is critical in us meeting those goals. The pandemic has caused an increasing adverse effect to the communities we serve. You can help us, help them. Please send in your tax-deductible contribution to the link below:
